

SUMMER COURSES OF ITALIAN LANGUAGE IN CAGLIARI

JULY-SEPTEMBER 2015

The University of Cagliari organises Italian language courses for foreign students.

Two weeks of full immersion in Italian language with Sardinian sea in the background, tastes and flavors of this millennial island.

The opportunity to study Italian and, at the same time, to experience original leisure time during July and September 2015 while learning the art and the history of Sardinia.

The course refers to:

- students, graduate students, researchers and scholars
- foreign freelancers and workers
- private citizens of foreign language who are interested in Italian language and culture.

The courses offer all levels of Italian language, ranging from elementary to advanced level. The lessons take place in the morning and with the assistance of qualified teachers of our Language Center. In the afternoon you will discover the world of Sardinian art, culture and traditions.

To learn to the best this culture of Sardinia you can follow activities such as gastronomy and other traditions (including a film, music workshop and the most famous monuments of Cagliari) that are offered by Sardinian cultural associations at a very affordable price. A request to join such program can be made by sending an email to: erasmus@unica.it.

Furthermore, activities will be organised by ESN for the weekend (Cagliari by night) or courses of windsurf.

For more information you can visit the following website:

<http://www.unica.it/UserFiles/File/Utenti/vani/SUMMER%20COURSES/2015/summer%20language%20courses%202015.pdf>