

Themes and Bibliography proposed for the position of Associate Professor, position 5 of the Staff of the Department of International Relations and European Studies

1. Themes

1. Defence techniques and cyber analysis
2. The role of CERT teams
3. The main cyber threats
4. Basic principles of strategic communication
5. Elements of the strategic communication plan
6. Stages and forms of Intelligence analysis
7. Types of analysis used by Intelligence services and categories of analysts
8. Proactive services provided by CERT teams
9. Preventive public services

2. Bibliography

- Federal Communications Commission, Cyber Security Planning Guide, Smart Systems Management, USA, 2007;
- ISEC, Guide on the role of CERT structures and the usefulness of private CERTs, National Cyber Security Incident Response Center, 2006;
- National Cyber Security Incident Response Center, Guide. Generic threats to cyber security, National Cyber Security Incident Response Center, 2013;
- Defence Strategic Communication Academic Journal, vol. 1/2014-9/2021, NATO Strategic Communications Centre of Excellence;
- Christopher Paul, Strategic communications: origins, concepts and current debates, (Contemporary Military, Strategic and Security Issues), Praeger Publishing House, SUA, 2011;
- Ionel Nițu (ed.), Ghidul Analistului de Intelligence. Compendiu pentru analiștii debutanți (Intelligence Analyst's Guide. Compendium for beginner analysts), The National Academy of Information "Mihai Viteazul" Publishing House, Bucharest, 2011.

The topic and bibliography was approved by the Council of the Department of International Relations and European Studies, through the electronic voting procedure, on May 10, 2022.

Head of Department,
Lecturer Ph.D. Florentina Chirodea