Dear Colleague,

As a reminder, you are invited to attend a free webinar hosted by IEEE, which will provide authors with best practices in preparing a manuscript, navigating the journal submission process, and important tips to help an author get published.

This session will feature the perspective of distinguished author, editor, professor, and research scientist, Dr. Anuradha Annaswamy, from Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), USA, who will provide critical insights into the IEEE peer review and submission processes and tips on what editors look for in submissions. Presenters will also cover topics such as open access programs for institutions, research strategies using the IEEE Xplore Digital Library, author tools, and other valuable resources.

Additional Topics Include:

- How to increase the visibility and impact of your research
- Tips and best practices to improve your chances of getting published

- What editors and reviewers look for in submissions
- Common reasons why papers are rejected
- Selecting the right publication for your research submission
- Author guidelines regarding the use of AI-generated text
- Warning signs to look for to avoid predatory journals
- Reasons to consider open access journals for your submissions
- Open access options available from IEEE for authors and institutions
- Research strategies using the IEEE Xplore Digital Library
- Authorship tools available for promoting open science
- Live Q&A: Our experts answer your questions live!
