

Writing Coach is live — your researchers can start today.

We have launched LeapSpace™'s Writing Coach recently. If you're looking for a simple way to make it available to your researchers, here's what to know.

Researchers can sign in, paste a draft, and start asking questions. Every recommendation is grounded in publisher-neutral, Scopus-indexed content. No automatic edits; researchers approve every change.

For institutions, that distinction matters: AI that supports research rigor, not just writing speed.
